

Obituary

Beloved father, Virgil Claude Austin, 90, of Homosassa, FL passed away June 11, 2017. He was born on December 15, 1926 to Roma and Gertrude Austin in Flat Top, West Virginia. A laborer for most of his life, Virgil moved to the area about 46 years ago from Virginia. He loved fishing, junking and was always smiling. Virgil never met a stranger and had a wonderful personality that lit up every room he was in. To his children, he was bigger than life – always so giving of his time and hospitality to them and anyone in need, Virgil was a very loving and much loved father.

Virgil was preceded in death by his brothers Ernest, Elmer and Dewey as well as his parents Roma and Gertrude. Virgil is survived by his loving wife Sallie Austin; children Juanita (Jerry) Keplinger, Cathy (James) Clark, Brenda Buzby and Linda (Bruce) Pruitt; also surviving are numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Private cremation is under the direction of Brown Funeral Home & Crematory in Lecanto, FL. Per Virgil's request, there will be no services held, he was a simple man.
