

Obituary

Benedict “Benny” Charles Parisi, 75, of Inglis, FL passed away February 7, 2017 under the loving care of his family and Hospice of Citrus & the Nature Coast. He was born on September 23, 1941 to Charles and Maryann Parisi in Patterson, NJ. He grew up in Ridgewood, NJ. He served his country in the US Army as an MP and was discharged from duty in 1966. Benny was a professional firefighter for the Ridgewood Fire Department in New Jersey. After 14 years of faithful service, he sustained an injury that forced his retirement in 1980. He moved to Florida in 1985. Benny was preceded in death by his parents and his sister Loretta S. Affonso.

Benny is survived by his loving wife of 22 years Zdzislawa “Dazia” Parisi, his Aunt Ruth Hryncewich Grund, and seven cousins. Family will receive friends from 1PM until service time at 2PM, Saturday, February 25, 2017 at Brown Funeral Home & Crematory in Lecanto, FL with full military honors.
