

Phillip D. Partridge of Savona, NY and Crystal River, FL passed away after an extended illness on Friday, February 18th, 2022. He was born July 8, 1959, in Penn Yan, NY. Phillip lived in Savona, NY before moving to Florida as an adult.

He was predeceased by his father, Spencer Partridge and eldest son, Phillip S. Partridge. He is survived by his mother, Carolyn Partridge; son Justin (Rachelle) Partridge; grandchildren, Curstin Nichols, Morgan Cupp, Gunnar Partridge, Reece Hodgkinson and Isabella Roche; great-grandsons Mason and Marlowe; brother Scott (Linda) Partridge; sister, Penny Carlton; partner in life Cindy Sinton DeGear, her children Mariah and Kenneth Gibbs and family; along with aunts, uncles, many nieces and nephews, cousins and dear friends.

People will remember him for his hearty laugh, his love of anything NASCAR, making his hors d'oeuvres before settling in to watch a race or sporting event, and his love of feeding and watching birds.

“Like a bird singing in the rain, let grateful memories survive in time of sorrow.” – Robert Louis Stevenson

Per Phillip's wishes, there will be no public viewing or service. A private memorial will be held by the immediate family at their convenience, and they know Phillip will be smiling down and saying, “It's all good”.
