

Todd D. Simicich, also known later in life by his stage name, Chase Simms, passed away unexpectedly at home on Friday, August 26, 2022, in Inverness, FL. Todd was born in Jersey City, NJ, and grew up in Old Bridge, NJ. He was a veteran of the United States Navy. Although he was an electrician by trade, Todd was truly a jack of all trades. Todd's passion was his music. He loved to play guitar and sing, and he entertained his family and many friends for decades. An ardent conversationalist, he loved long talks with friends and family, and spoke with enthusiasm on any subject. Todd loved to cook and bake, and would share his creations with his wide circle of friends. He would do anything for others, always lending a hand, and always making sure his friends and neighbors were taken care of.

Todd was predeceased by his parents, Lenin Simicich and Kathryn Dymkowski.

He is survived by his brother Lenin and his wife Donna, his brothers Drew, Lee, and Adam, as well as several nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews. He also leaves behind many friends, all of whom will miss him greatly.

Private cremation will take place under the direction of Brown Funeral Home and Crematory in Lecanto, FL.
