

On Saturday, November 19, Brandy Michelle (Wilson) Rich, a beloved mother, wife, daughter, sister and friend, passed away. She was forty-four. Born to Jenny Lou (Stoney) Wilson and Michael Kyle Wilson, Brandy was the oldest of three siblings. She lived in Citrus County. Brandy graduated from Nova Southeastern University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and spent many years as a top performing Senior Sales Executive at Yardi. While in the early stages of her career, Brandy met Rocky E. Rich, Jr. They fell in love, married and were together for 15 years until the time of Rocky's passing in 2019. Brandy often said her greatest achievement was her family and she adored her two boys, Rocky III (14), and Brady (13).

Brandy was full of life and enjoyed many social activities including concerts, casino games, playing pool, singing karaoke, summer beach vacations, and especially spending quality time with her family and loved ones. Brandy was an avid reader, a trait she shared with her youngest, Brady. The two would exchange books and loved sharing big hugs. She shared a passion for adventure with her oldest, Rocky, and they spent hours in the woods on their 4 wheelers. At the end of any given day Brandy could be found snuggling on the couch with her boys and tucking them in at night. While business trips often took her to many places across the country, Brandy's happiest moments were at home with her family.

Brandy is preceded in death by her husband, Rocky E. Rich, Jr, and her brother, Daniel William Boone Wilson. Brandy is survived by her two sons, Rocky E. Rich III and Brady Michael Rich, her mother Jenny Lou, her father Michael, her sister Cameron Kyle Williams, her brother-in-law Colin Williams, her nephew Camden Morris Williams, her niece Josie Lind Williams, her father-in-law Rockie Rich, Sr, her mother-in-law Brenda (Morton) Rich, and a wealth of loved ones and friends.

Visitation will be held from 1-2PM, Saturday, November 26, 2022 with Services beginning at 2PM at Brown Funeral Home & Crematory in Lecanto. Burial will follow at Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Beverly Hills.
