

Susan Eileen "Susie" Zimmerhackel (Jones) passed away on April 28, 2024, in Hernando, Florida, at the age of 66. She was born on August 19, 1957, in Birmingham, Alabama to Paul and Betty Jones.

Susan was an empathetic, accepting, and passionate individual who loved the Lord and was unashamed to share the love of Jesus through her words and actions. She was unyielding in her determination to help those in need and get the job done. She had a fierce love for her family and was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone who required it. Susan opened her home to those who had nowhere else to go, embodying the true spirit of compassion. Her contagious laughter and caring nature touched the lives of many.

In her 8 years running Celebrate Recovery with her husband and her 17-year career as an Assistant Case Manager with Dry Bones Denver, Susan dedicated herself to assisting homeless youth to establish stable lives and those needing freedom from addiction to gain hope and healing. Her commitment to serving others left a lasting impact on the community she served. Outside of her career, Susan found joy in jewelry making, scrapbooking, fishing, and decorating her home. These hobbies allowed her to express her creativity and bring beauty into the world around her.

Susan is survived by her husband of 19 years, George Zimmerhackel; daughter Niki and husband Steve Powers; son Deven and wife Lyndsey O'Rourke; stepson Anthony Gevara; sisters Debra and husband Lee McDonald, Jill and husband Derek Ferrell; brother James Jones; grandchildren Kayla and husband Shane, Evan, and Autumn; great-grandson Luca; nieces, nephews, two childhood best friends of 53 years, Liz and Coleen, and countless other individuals whom she took under her care. She is preceded in death by her father Paul Jones and mother Betty Quick.

A private Celebration of Life honoring Susan will be held at a later date. Contributions in her memory can be made to Dry Bones Denver at drybonesdenver.org.

May Susan's memory be a blessing to all who knew her.
